Dear Ashley

Many thanks for your email correspondence dated 11th July 2018. I was away on annual leave when this email was sent and I have been working my way through a backlog of correspondence.

Your addendum report is very helpful and hopefully this will help us move our client's case forward.

I confirm that a cheque in the sum of £1170.00 is being sent to you in today's post. Once again I thank you for your continued assistances on my client's case.

Kind Regards

Niall
